【VIII】 (問33—問35) 次の英文を読んで各設問に答えなさい。

If you go to a library, you will see a lot of books. You can find all kinds of books, from easy-to-read books to difficult textbooks. Why are there so many books? Why do we read them?

The first reason we read books is to get information. Some people may say that the Internet is faster for getting information. It is true that the Internet is a 問33 () tool. But sometimes the information on the Internet is unreliable. On the other hand, books are usually written by experienced writers.

The second reason we read is to learn about other places and other times. Through books we can learn about people in other countries and people from history. If you know how to read, you can easily travel through 問34 ().

Also, you can learn about life through books. Life is filled with trouble. If you read, you can learn how to solve problems and also how to avoid them.

Finally, reading books is just fun. Visual media such as television or movies have some limits to what they can describe. Writing, however, gives you more freedom to express yourself.
